

MRED+U TRAVEL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The University of Miami School of Architecture Master of Real Estate Development and Urbanism program is offering a limited number of need-based travel scholarships. These funds are intended to defray travel costs to MRED+U related events. Scholarship amounts are based on MRED+U budget, number of students to apply, and estimated cost of the trip. Scholarship awards will typically cover a portion of travel expenses including registration, airfare, ground transportation, and hotel. You must fill out this application for each event.

To be eligible, the applicant must meet the following requirements:

- The participant must be a student pursuing a Master of Real Estate Development and Urbanism at the University of Miami.
- The participants are required to apply for any scholarships available through the event organization.
- Participants that have received this scholarship in prior years may not be eligible.

To apply for a scholarship:

- Complete the form below including a brief statement detailing the importance of attending the event.
- Submit proof of application to other available scholarships, if applicable.
- Submit items above to mredu@miami.edu.
- A written statement detailing the students experience should be emailed to MREDU@miami.edu one week after the trip.
